

The Taxi Chronicles: A Honey Walker Adventure

Honey Walker's ambitions don't go much beyond paying the bills and scoring a sexy pair of stilettos. So her job as driver for the Cool Rides Cab Company in Northampton, Mass. seems like a good gig. That is, until the morning when a well-dressed woman calls for a ride to the courthouse and pulls a gun on her; she hits a police car and winds up interrogated by the entirely yummy Lieutenant Jon Stevens. A rollicking romantic ride for readers everywhere, murder, mobsters and mayhem abound in this quirky debut novel by S.G. Rogers. Part Bridget Jones, part Evanovich and entertaining all the way, Honey is drawn into a complex web of intrigue populated by reformed working girls, Glock-toting grandmas, and lovable local lunatics. Sure to be an instant sensation with anybody who knows what it is to work for a living, the novel is published by Village Green Press, LLC, and is the first in a series of Honey Walker Adventures.
