

Finding Dani (Once A Marine Always A Marine Book 3)

Danielle Bordeaux was used to danger. As a doctor with the Center for Disease Control she thrived on the adventure and challenge of battling the worlds worst diseases, in the worlds worst places. When Ebola breaks out in a small village in Ghana, she and her team are prepared for the worst. But what she finds is a virus made even more deadly by human hands. And when rebels attack the camp, rescue comes from the last man she ever expected to see again. It hurts every time she looks at him, but also brings a sweet torture that shes not sure she can deny. Damon Dupree is an ex-Marine for hire. A former sniper and an ace helicopter pilot, he goes where the money and excitement take him. The government has him playing babysitter to a genius inventor, bent on finding a cure for Ebola but a frantic call has him racing to save the one woman from his past that he cant touch and cant forget. With a killer bent on infecting anyone close with a mutated virus, can he save the only woman whos ever meant anything to him before they lose everything?
