

Falling From the Sky (Gravity) (Volume 2)

Shes the woman he doesnt remember. Hes the man she cant forget. Bad boy Hank Hazardous Lazarus used to have everything: a gorgeous girlfriend, a career as a freestyle snowboarder and a spot on the US Olympic team. Nine months ago, after a bad crash in the half pipe, he woke up in the hospital, unable to move his legs. Now hes landed there again, but gravity is not the culprit. With his family pressuring him to try a groundbreaking treatment, Hank self-medicates with too much tequila instead. Doctor Callie Anders has the courage to restart a patients heart with a thousand volts of electricity, yet shes afraid to risk her own. So she doesnt confess to the clinics newest patient that they met just before the accident, an encounter that he doesnt remember. Even as their friendship develops, she wont admit that she regrets turning down his dinner invitation, or that her heart stutters every time those inked shoulders roll through the door of the therapy department. With another Vermont winter coming again, Hank needs a hand out from under the avalanche of his disappointments. If only Callie were brave enough to take the job. This book is a full-length, standalone novel, no cliffhangers, no prior experience necessary.
